I research software engineering with a focus on people: user experience, validation techniques such as Technology Probe, human factors in software teams and gender diversity in technology. I have industry experience as a full-stack and front-end developer and currently work as a Product Manager.

EDUCATION

- 2025 — present PhD in Systems and Computer Engineering
Federal University of Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ) — PESC/COPPE · Rio de Janeiro, RJ
- 2022 — 2025 MSc in Systems and Computer Engineering
Federal University of Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ) — PESC/COPPE · Rio de Janeiro, RJ
Dissertation: “Evolving a Validation Session with Technology Probe Technique to Support the Engineering of Contemporary Software Systems”.
- 2016 — 2022 BSc in Computer Science
Federal University of Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ) — Computer Science Department · Rio de Janeiro, RJ

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Mar 2025 — present Product Manager
COPPETEC / Funasa · Rio de Janeiro, RJ
Defining software requirements and managing development teams to deliver the project.
- Jul 2022 — Apr 2023 Full-stack developer
Grupo Soma · Rio de Janeiro, RJ
Developed technology solutions for the Brazilian fashion industry, focusing on building APIs and user interfaces.
- Aug 2021 — Jul 2022 Research intern
IBM Research · Rio de Janeiro, RJ
Supported IBM Research scientists in building software and running data analyses for their papers.
- Jan 2021 — Aug 2021 Front-end engineering intern
Grupo Boticário · Rio de Janeiro, RJ
Developed the front-end of a new product with React.js and a CMS, keeping the user experience in focus, and contributed to documentation and launch preparation.
